Dear Mary

I'd like to be the sort of friend that you have been to me;
I'd like to be the kels that you're been always glad to be,
I'd like to mean as much to you
each minute of the day, as you have meant all friend of mine to me along the way

Love

Dearest Mary:

This English is worrying me so I won't endeavor to compose anything very ecstumptious.

But keep up your good work and some day I'm hoping the world will gaze on some of your paintings from famous Art Galleries.

Best luck Mary and remember me as a true friend - Doris McClean.

Hodie amicus tuus eum.
Heri amicus tuus eram
Semper amicus tuus ero.

(I hope that's right! Latin is kind of mixed up as far as I'm concerned!)
Some friendships are like the tide -
Rising, to ebb slowly away.
But I hope ours will forever ride
As on a Mediterranean Bay.

Dearest Mary,

Hope is like a harebell trembling
from its birth,
Love is like a rose the joy of all the earth;
Faith is like a lily lifted high
and white,
Love is like a lovely rose the world's delight;
Harebells and sweet lilies show a thornless growth,
But the girl with a smiling face excels them both.

Dear Mary. -

How you stop flirting with me. with those big brown eyes of yours. They're pure beautiful! Maybe that's why you are so artistic, eh? Well, anyway Mary, don't forget our Biology class & blood orful starfish are butchered! If I could write as well as I can talk wouldn't I be a wonder? Guess Mrs. D. doesn't like to hear my talking. Oke by me! Die surely enjoyed you, are you glad?
