SOCIAL AGENCIES AID RESETTLERS

Chicago—Social agencies throughout the Midwest have been fully informed on the war's dislocation of our Japanese American population and have already assisted a number of Center residents in resuming normal lives again, according to Miss Prudence Ross, Acting Supervisor of the North Central Area. Services of both private and public agencies will be available to Japanese Americans long after WRA has been liquidated.

Grants from the Resettlement Assistance Fund are not limited to emergency situations nor are they strictly "relief." Grants are made on the basis of need, and a need may be defined as any obstacle to resettlement. A number of employed resettlers have requested grants for their travel expenses to a Relocation Center for the purpose of helping their family or parents leave the Center. Others have requested grants to purchase furniture or to rent larger apartments or houses on having their families join them in a Midwest community. Such financial assistance is not a loan but an outright grant to minimize for the evacuee undue stress and worry over finances in trying to begin life over again in the world outside the Centers.

BOY CONFESSES HE AIDED IN VANDALISM ON CEMETERY

Fresno, Cal.—A 10-year-old boy living near Mountain View Cemetery admitted to deputies last week that he was involved in overturning tombstones on Japanese graves recently. Of a dozen boys questioned, this seemed to be the only one involved. The investigation will continue, Deputy Sheriff Henry Schafer declared last week.

Seattle Group Presses For Exclusion Measure

Seattle—The Times reported last week that the Japanese Exclusion League at Bellevue told the audience they wanted no debate from the opposition and threatened to oust anyone who tried to take the floor. The meeting itself was prefaced by the organization's avowal of belief in free speech.

Arthur Ritchie, an active organizer of the Japanese Exclusion League, said the initiation fee for membership in the league, founded by Ralph Hannan of Gresham, Ore., cost $10 and dues are $1 per month.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM WINS TITLE

Cincinnati, Ohio—Bill Sasagawa's BTO team became champs of the Greater Cincinnati, Ohio, All Women's Basketball League by winning its last scheduled game with the Pepsi-Colas, last week.

A former basketball star at college, Sasagawa, 27, finds plenty of leisure time for athletics and social work. "I have a great deal of faith," says Bill, "in athletics as a common denominator and agency of goodwill."

Bigger War Coming?

Editor, Rocky Mountain News: I agree with Earl W. Mann. I also deplore race prejudice. I'm afraid that our beloved country will be in a bigger war in due time because of race discrimination.

Is it the fault of anyone that his skin is dark? Didn't God create all men? Aren't we all equal in the eyes of God? To him no one is better than the other.

What started this war? Hitler's hatred for the Jews. Well, I'm afraid that this country, especially Colorado, we have many selfish people, and even those who hang up signs, "White trade only." Such people are just plain ignorant.

ATTORNEY GENERAL CALLS FOR REPORT ON SHOOTING

Madera, Cal.—Deputy Sheriff Ray Andress stated a bullet dug from the wall of the home of Minoru Ohashi last week has been sent to the State Bureau of Identification, Sacramento, to determine whether it was fired by a rifle or a revolver. He added that a deputy in Attorney General Kenney's office has called for a complete report on the shooting. District Attorney Everett Coffee is launching an investigation.

COUPLE FOUND TO ADOPT TWINS BORN TO NISEI

Chicago—The twin girls born to Sandra Kawakubo, 18-year-old unmarried nisei mother, who died giving them birth, found a couple who wish to adopt them as their own children, the Daily News said on April 9.

One has been named Frances, in honor of Judge Francis Borelli, who befriended the girl after she appeared on charges of stealing $600 from her employer to care for her expected children. The other was named Jennie for Mrs. Jennie Du Bray, bailiff, who took up a collection for her.

Sandra's parents came from Heart Mountain, Wyo., for the funeral but refused to accept the twins.

TULARE'S NISEIS' LAND HOLDINGS UP

Visalia, Cal.—Land holdings by nisei in Tulare County have increased slightly since Pearl Harbor, a survey by the District Attorney's office has disclosed.

Of 4000 estimated residents of Japanese descent in Tulare in 1942, there were 109 individuals and partnerships owning 3484 acres. As of March 1, 1945, there were 94 nisei owning 3496 acres. Leases which in 1942 included 72 nisei renting 3242 acres have entirely disappeared as a result of evacuation.

MARINE PHOTOGRAPHER AT IWO STRESSES ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF NISEI FIGHTERS

Chicago—In an interview, Joe Rosenthal, AP photographer who took the famous picture of Marines raising the flag at Iwo Jima, said:

"There are thousands of Japanese Americans in the U. S. service in all theaters. They have done an outstanding job and should be recognized. It has been recognized by the Marine commanders where I saw them in action at Guam, Peliliu and Iwo. Usually they work with headquarters as interpreters."

Rosenthal mentioned that many nisei serving in Europe have clamored for transfer to the Pacific, and "condemned isolated instances of antagonism toward Japanese American fighters by men in U. S. services."

RESETTLED IN COLORADO

Recent resettlers here from Heart Mountain, Wyo., are Fred, Helen, Maki, Mary and Toshio Miyauchi and Hisashi Shimizu. Harry Tateishi relocated in Rocky Ford.

Architect Happy in N.Y.

New York City—George Gentoku Shimamoto, Issei architectural draftsman, described to WRA officials last week his contentment in living here with his family.

He commutes between his office in Jersey City, N. J., and his apartment at 10 W. 106th St. here. His daughters attend school at Public School No. 64. "They have been invited to so many parties by their classmates that they don't have much time for me, either," he said.

SENATE COMMITTEE

Sacramento, Cal.—Senate Judiciary Committee last week approved a grant of $200,000 to the Attorney General's office for the prosecution of violations of the state's anti-alien land law.

On The Other Hand—

By Roy M. Takeno

THE TECHNIQUE

While the method cannot be labeled exclusively as "the Nebraska technique," the ouster planned by a group of Kearney, Nebr., farmers does possess a certain degree of finesse, one must admit. We recall that a group of dairymen in Tulare, Cal., succeeded in convincing a group of nisei workers that they should leave the community a few months ago.

The finesse, if one may call it so, enters into the Kearney picture with the raising of a fund to provide transportation for the six families to leave, following the decision reached at a mass meeting of neighborhood farmers.

County Attorney Oscar Drake explained that the move, in effect, was not intended as a hostile design toward the Japanese, but merely as a precaution against the formation of a possible Japanese colony in Kearney.

Folks who are determined to prevent the formation of such colonies might as well attempt to divide the number of square miles in America by the census population and literally plant the allotted number to each square mile, and be done with it.

『鈴木平和内閣』とは何事ぞ
東京放送強く英米を冷笑
高橋大將 琉球沖の大勝利を絶呼

（桑港十七日）本日の東京放送は冒頭に於て鈴木内閣に対して「鈴木内閣とは何事ぞ」と題して、次の如く論じた。

「鈴木新内閣は本日組織されたが、鈴木内閣は前内閣と同じ顔ぶれであり、鈴木内閣は前内閣の下に組織された内閣であり、鈴木新内閣は前内閣の下に組織された内閣であるとは、まさに自己撞着である。鈴木新内閣は本月初旬の閣議に於て、米英との和平を決定した。鈴木新内閣のターナリスト達は、鈴木内閣云々を唱えているが、已に内閣は和平を決定する閣議に於ては、米英のグループ閣内官は、東郷外相を筆頭とする親米派の閣員であり
