Walter Nakatsukasa, Ph.D.

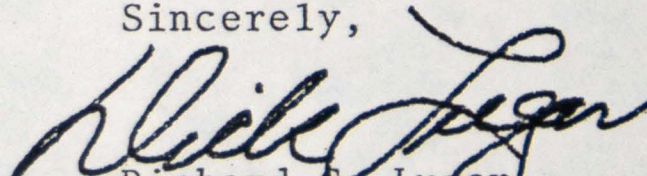

Dear Dr. Nakatsukasa:

Thank you for your letter expressing your interest in S. 1647. I appreciate your bringing this bill to my attention. I have not yet formed an opinion about the legislation, although I certainly see nothing objectionable about it from your description. I agree with you that grave injustices to American citizens were committed in connection with Executive Order 9066.

I see from your letter that Senator Hayakawa is a cosponsor of the legislation. I find his views on matters concerning Japanese-Americans (and many other subjects!) both thoughtful and sensitive, and I will speak with him about the purpose of the bill.

Thank you again.

Sincerely,

Richard G. Lugar
