The National JACL budget will not take effect until January 1, 1985. I am unaware of the current balance in the MDC redress fund established by national. Jackie Vidourek should have an updated accounting of what has been spent.

I am aware that John Tateishi will be putting together a proposed redress strategy for the next two years at the request of Frank Sato. We may wish to delay a meeting until such time that we are able to evaluate the report for implementation in the Midwest. The report is due for the October 20, 1984 national
