Ms. Helen Murao

Dear Helen:

Chiye Tomihiro has informed me of your willingness to participate in a presentation on redress before the Northwestern student chapter of the National Lawyer's Guild on February 17, 1984.

My understanding of the format is as follows:

- Film - Guilty by Reason of Race
- Introductory remarks on the film or the evacuation by you and Paul Igasaki
- Question/Answer session with the law students

You will be joined on the panel by a law faculty member and Paul Igasaki, an attorney. I would imagine that Paul will handle the legal questions especially related to the Korematsu case. I would also anticipate questions related to the camp experience which you may feel comfortable in handling.

The program begins at 4:30 p.m. at Strawn Hall, 357 East Chicago Avenue. Strawn Hall is the name of the room at the above address. There is also an entrance on Superior Street.

Thank you for volunteering for this presentation.

Sincerely,

William J. Yoshino
