WILLIAM J. YOSHINO
REGIONAL DIRECTOR

TO: Denny Yasuhara
DATE: February 1, 1984
FROM: Bill Yoshino BW
SUBJ: MDC Redress Finances

In reply to your request for an estimate of the necessary finances required to carry out an effective redress program in the Midwest District I am enclosing a memo I sent to John Tateishi in September, 1983.

As you will note, the amount requested at that time was $3000 which is the amount consistent with the redress line item adopted in the 1983-84 budget of the MDC. As you will further note, the $3000 represents the minimum requirement for Henry Tanaka (MDC Redress Representative) to administer the program in the district. This figure does not take into consideration expenses the individual MDC chapters will incur in order to implement their local redress programs.

It is my judgement that each of the MDC chapters will require approximately $500 in administrative expenses (postage, telephone, minor travel). The Chicago JAACL, of course, is the exception. The Chicago redress committee has developed a budget for 1984 in the amount of $4300. This would cover administrative expenses, the use of A/V equipment, and the establishment of a speaker's bureau. The administrative expenses alone are $1400. A conservative estimate of finances required would be $8400 for the MDC for 1984. This, of course, assumes that each of the MDC chapters participate fully and actively in the redress effort.

I am enclosing a general breakdown of the above narrative. Should you have further questions, please contact me.

MDC Administrative expenses 3000

These costs represent expenses for the MDC Redress representative and Regional Director to actively communicate and travel within the district. These costs represent travel, postage and photocopying.

Chapter Administrative expenses 4000

This represents administrative costs of photocopying telephone, postage, and minor travel for each of the MDC chapters exclusive of Chicago.

Chicago JAAL 1400

Administrative expenses for telephone, postage, photocopying and stationery. This does not represent programmatic expenses for such items as a speaker's bureau.
