REGIONAL DIRECTOR

December 27, 1983

Mr. Edward Hara

Dear Ed:

Thanks for the card and I wish you, Kathy, and the children a very happy new year.

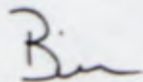

Regarding your requests, I have informed national of your request for 50 copies of the summary of Personal Justice Denied. At present there are no other pamphlets available for redress purposes.

The pledge amounts are tied to the JAACL fiscal year (Oct. 1-Sept. 30). Because the redress program is experiencing cash flow problems, they naturally, would like the pledge amounts as soon as possible. I understand some chapters such as Chicago, however, have adopted a quarterly plan to more easily handle the outlay.

In a strict sense, Tom is correct in indicating that the pledges are voluntary. One must keep in mind also that the redress program is a national priority and chapters must be mindful of their responsibilities therein.

With warm regards,

Sincerely,

William J. Yoshino
