Dear Kune,

It was very nice to hear from you again and to know you are fine. I got a letter from "Pekun" and he was in the Repl. Depot and I guess he is on his way home by now. I hope so for his sake.

I am now in Naples at the Airport working in a club. I have been moved again. I was at Bagrati. I hope this is the last time I will have to change.

I have no definite news about going home but so far it looks as if I might get out of here by the end of November. Am trying to get to Pisa and Florence once before I leave. So you may see me yet.

I have many of the boys gone home yet or left the company. It's about time you all got home.

I can't say I like this club work but I guess I can stand anything for awhile if it means I'm on my way.

Say hello to all the boys and take care of yourself. Always, Jim
