Dear Kune,

I was so sorry to have missed you when I came out to the Company. I am at the Florence Airport so you be sure and drop in the next time you're in Florence. Adolph and Capt. Schutte both know where it is.

I had a dinner engagement with Long Tom but we got our times mixed up and missed each other. I hope I'll run into them again so we can finally have that dinner.

When are you all going home? Is it true you will be there until March? That seems an awfully long time off. I am ready to go home just anytime but it looks as if I'll be here for quite a spell yet.

The next time I come calling you had better be home. I missed so many of the boys. 'I ain't fair!' Can you give me Long Tom's address maybe I could drop him a line and make another engagement. Take care of yourself.

Sincerely, Shirley

V...-MAIL

V-Mail Service provides the most expeditious dispatch and reduces the weight of mail to and from personnel of our Armed Forces outside the continental United States. When addressed to points where micro-film equipment is operated, a miniature photographic negative of the message will be made and sent by the most expeditious transportation available for reproduction and delivery. The original message will be destroyed after the reproduction has been delivered. Messages addressed to or from points where micro-film equipment is not operated will be transmitted in their original form by the most expeditious means available.

INSTRUCTIONS

- (1) Write the entire message plainly on the other side within marginal lines.
- (2) PRINT the name and address in the two panels provided. Addresses to members of the Armed Forces should include rank or rating of the addressee, unit to which attached, and APO or Naval address.
- (3) Fold, seal, and deposit in any post office letter drop or street letter box.
- (4) Enclosures must not be placed in this envelope and a separate V-Mail letter must be sent if you desire to write more than one sheet.
- (5) V-Mail letters may be sent free of postage by members of the Armed Forces. When sent by others postage must be prepaid at domestic rates (3c ordinary mail, 6c if air mail is desired).
