Dear Mr. Honda,

Michi Weglyn, author of YEARS OF INFAMY, which we originally published in 1976, has pointed out to me the error in your notice in the issue of November 16, 1990 concerning the death of our old friend and editor, Howard Cady, who was the book's editor those many years ago. You report the book in that issue as being out of print, and I want to assure you that, in our Quill trade-paperback edition, it is very much in print, and continues to ship orders every month, and there is quite a good supply of stock on hand in our warehouse.

Michi Weglyn has asked me to ask you for a "front-page correction of the error." I do hope you will comply.

Yours sincerely,

JDL:mac
cc. Michi Weglyn
