

She says if he commands she will obey that her world.

He says he is not commanding her to marry him, at
They have tea together.

He leaves and returns to the capital where he writes poems.

She answers that she can never marry anyone a man before. The exchange of letters continues until moon old man finds her weeping.

She tells the old man that she will be leaving on the the night of the harvest moon. She has no memory with the old couple and loves. She does not want to go, but it is.

The Emperor sends his best wishes and orders from the moon coming to Sotokata Kaguya. The company can get in the house.

But when it comes, there's no stopping the ladies when they come for their princess.

A cloud around the moon descends to the earth, and Kaguya Hime's room fly open and she floats out and

The Moon god tells the old princess was sent to earth some offense on the moon god says he knows the themselves to raise his daughter. But by planting gold in the bamboo for the old man to find. So, you have

There's no arguing or pleading with the Moon God.

The ladies-in-waiting from the moon give her the of life. She takes half and wants to give the rest to it. She gives the old couple her kimono as a keepsake

"I must write to my friend the Emperor's - she says wait a little longer. She slips the elixir of life into the letter the old man to deliver to the Emperor.

As she flies off to the moon in her white undergarment the princess of the moon tells the old couple to think moon.

If the Emperor drinks the elixir of life the emperor with the princess Kaguya Hime. Yes, love is strange.