Dear Frank

Here I am at the Post Office where I get my correspondence attended to. Heard from Paul T. last night, and it sounds like things are really on the roll.

You've certainly done a great job of mobilizing the media. Paul sent us: Tozai, which shows generous spread on Resisters accompanied by Abe essay and good pictorials. Harry Wend sent me big play in San Jose Mercury. Good job by Donna Kato. I sent your quoted article to the N.Y. Nichibee and am hoping it'll be printed. Abe must have cashed our check from half year ago, finally. The cancelled checks finally arrived.

Am enclosing that notorious Kinokuniya book catalog which features Lil Biker's book under "Japanese Americans". A second book of hers is featured on the last page. My classmate, Mary Karasawa (from Oia) could get no response from the book buyer (who stated over the phone that it's ^{not} her practice to send out letters!) Perhaps you should confront the woman in person. Mary said that her assistant was also cagey. I've been meaning to write to the Pres. of K. in Tokyo, but just haven't found the time so far.

Since I wanted to suggest to you that perhaps Gordon Hirabayashi should take out an ad or contribute an article, etc. I decided to send this via priority mail, hence the extra flyers on XOI as a filler. On the back of this mangled address label* is Gordon's phone number. I don't know whether support from Korematsu is as important. In any case, here's his address:

My dear activist, deaf-mute friend, Nannah Holmes, wrote to say that her docs have told her that her cancer has spread to the neck. Early diagnosis was possible goiter, (She's the sister of Paul Takagi in S.F.) She wants to support the Resisters "all the way" while she lives, she says, and will be making posters to bring along, so that ought to add a touch of excitement and flare. Know anybody who knows sign language? She was a plaintiff in Hobbs vs US so it's great that William will be there. She wants to meet + shake Omura's hands. Good luck, love, to Dana + Sam Chew too! Medi
