

I trust you have received the last batch of Rikka. I should have sent a copy with Shichan but at that time the issue had been in the mail a full week. However, even at your last mailing nothing had reached you yet. Which just shows you that the PO is an utter failure. Chaos is its middle name. Automation and expensive electronic equipment has only worsened the situation.

Tell me where to order more of the redress sheaf repros. ^{*}I'll see that key people here ^[Canada] in the redress effort get them. Gee, it was good to see Floyd Schmoe on page 2. Also that view of Minoru Masuda in the same picture. Seattle is, as you say, on the ball. I sent Pacific Citizen a copy of the Hayakawa issue and asked for exchange. It might be an uneven exchange in monetary terms but I hope if Honda is serious

George Yamada of Rikka to me. I sent on to him my redress PR stuff
