The safety of the nation is paramount to the convenience of the individuals.

They are so woven into the business, political and economic structure that segregating them is impossible.

When a better system is set up, as it shortly will be if enough people insist on it, we shall almost certainly see once again that what was said to be impossible is in fact possible.

This is the one major fact that stands supreme in the news.

One thing, however, seems to stand above the entire picture.

Gentlemen:

In regard to your letter dated on May 12, requesting me to pay my bill amounting $25.00, which I owe to Dr.
J. T. Rose. It is very regretting to say that I can't be able to full fill your demand, due to my present economical
condition.

Although I can't full fill your demand for duration, I will promise to pay you as soon as I am able to resume my normal life again.

Kindly accept my request.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Sir:

I regret that I have been too negligent
in writing to you since.

Dear —

I regret to learn that you have caught
a fever and were sent to the hospital,
and I write to express my sympathy and most earnest good wishes for your speedy recovery.

Dear —

I am very sorry to fail you the payment for which I have already been too long your debtor,
