Dear Mr. Takano:

The Commanding General has directed me to advise you that a change has been made in regard to your exclusion status. As a result thereof and in the absence of intervening circumstances, you are now authorized to travel and reside within the West Coast Exclusion Zone of the Western Defense Command.

If it is your intention to return to the Pacific Coast, it will be of material advantage to you to have in your possession an identification card bearing your photograph and fingerprint, as evidence of your authorization to travel and reside within these areas.
