CIVIL LIBERTIES ACT OF 1988 - VOLUNTARY INFORMATION FORM

Your support is needed to locate persons of Japanese ancestry who were confined, held in custody, relocated, or otherwise deprived of liberty or property during World War II. The submission of information or documentation is entirely voluntary. However, any of the information below will be of assistance in locating those individuals who may be eligible to receive compensation under the Civil Liberties Act of 1988. If you cannot fully answer all of the questions, partial information is also helpful.

IMPORTANT: You may complete this form if you believe yourself to be eligible for payment under the Act or you may complete this form to help locate another individual who may be eligible to receive payment.
