

The Wilton Project and Narita/No Surrender Productions
in association with The City of Los Angeles Cultural Affairs Dept. Present

Stories Waiting to be Told

The Wilderness Within

"Jude Narita hits paydirt once again doing what she does best..."Stories Waiting to Be Told" are American stories...Narita's work is always fresh, always precise...profoundly moving."

—Sylvia Drake, Los Angeles Times

4 PERFORMANCES ONLY!

Written and Performed by

JUDE NARITA

Directed by Charlie Stratton

A one-woman play celebrating Asian and Asian American women as they redefine their identity within the American Dream.

April 7 & 8, 14 & 15

Fridays & Saturdays, 8 p.m.

Los Angeles Theatre Center

514 S. Spring Street (between 5th & 6th)
Downtown Los Angeles

Tickets $15

Students, Seniors $12

Group discounts available

For tickets & information call Theatix at (213) 466-1767

LATC is a facility of the Cultural Affairs Dept. of the City of Los Angeles