

Kazuyoshi Nagashima.
Per I. History.

Dear Mr Wells.

Last night I studied very hard to finish on my notes on the earliest civilization. I worked until 12 o'clock and this morning from 6 o'clock. As I worked on my notes I thought I was playing until today. I felt shame.

I haven't finish on the civilization of Egypt yet. I know that I will get low grade, but I am trying my best. and I am going to work more from now on. This morning when you said,

"We will have test", and we did, my mind was trying to get the answers, but I couldn't until you told me. I was shame for just a simple question that I couldn't answer. I can't blame the boy who said some thing. I am shame of my self. I am shame of my test. Please put big F on my test so that I will have that F deep in my heart that after the semester is over, I will see if I will get B. Which I am going to work from now on. please excuse me for felling around in the class

until today.

ours truly

Kazuyoshi Nagashima