Sue - Well Sue ole gal, how are you. How's your tennis game coming along, and now that summer has come do bet you're knocking their eyes out at the Snelling pool - And a hello to Sue, or is it Shag? I thought I heard Sue from you and Shag from other sources. Returning to the topic of sports, this ocean sure is a nice swimming pool. The water is clean and blue, and the sea is very calm. The sun is hot so the water should be ideal and warm. They should let us dive off the ship and let us go swimming, at the rate this boat is traveling. The only sport that I've indulged in, since boarding this ship is running to the rail fast enough so as not to dirty the deck! Yeah it was pretty rough for me the first several days but the sea calmed down after that and I've been able to hold my own. Did you enjoy your trip down to Chi? How many days did you gals get? Hope you didn't spend it like some of us - Anyways you should have had a nice time with so many people to wait on you. The weather is hot and the news is scarce so I'll have to cut it here. Do you think you'll have a few minutes during class time to drop me a line?

Ted
