

Wednesday -

Dear Iris and Sue,

Heavens you sound dejected!
I just wish I could do something to cheer you. I think maybe it's because it's all so new, and when you become acclimated you'll like it much better. So chin up, kiddies, this war can't go on forever!

All the nice things you both said raised my morale no end!

We miss you three a great deal. I really mean that. You added a great deal to the company, and the loss — our loss — is definitely felt.

I had so hoped you would find something wonderful waiting for you. Maybe it's because the project is a "baby" that it looks so disorganized, and in time will turn out to be really something. Anyway I'm investigating the situation through Boston, and will let you know any information I gather.

Nothing exciting has happened here since you left. We're going to have thirty more girls for the separation center.

Just wanted you to know that I'm thinking of you, and if there's anything I can do for you please let me know.

Sincerely —
