Canadian Solicitor Gen. Larry Pennell has resigned from the cabinet, Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson announced. Pearson also said after a cabinet meeting that he and Liberal Party leader Pierre E. Trudeau have agreed that Trudeau will take over as prime minister Monday. Pennell's resignation left six cabinet posts for Trudeau to fill. Others who have resigned are Privy Council President Walter Gordon, Trade Minister Robert Winters, Secretary of State Judy LaMarsh and Labor Minister John Nicholson. The sixth post, justice minister, is held by Trudeau himself.
