

FORMER KAMIKAZE GREETED BY U. S. BENEFACTORS

ROBERT NISHIYAMA, former kamikaze (suicide) pilot, meets Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnstone and their son Bruce on his arrival at Easton, Pa., from Japan to enter Lafayette college. Nishiyama's education is being paid for by the $10,000 insurance of another Johnstone son, Robert, killed in action against the Japanese. The Downingtown, Pa., family wants Nishiyama to be educated to help prevent war. He and Bruce will enter the same class.

(International Soundphoto)