

NOVEMBER 2, 1945

FIRST SALE . . . Lt. Col. Herbert S. Potter buys the first $200 victory bond sold at Ft. Devens as the bond drive opens this week. Miss Marjorie Hurley, secretary to Gen. Crane, one of the "Minute Maids," makes the sale.