

Wacs Frolic

CLOTHES MAKE THE WOMAN . . . into whatever she wants to be. Demonstrated by Madelyn Chandler, Betty Nawfel, Bea Buckley, Selma Hanson, Irene Chapman and Martha Beam at the Wacs' Hallowe'en dance.

"THE HELL YOU SAY!"

OPEN NEW ORIENTATION CENTER

ORIENTATION CENTER . . . These officers and enlisted men examine an exhibit gathered by Marmorek of Co. E, RC, which has been set up in the Band room of the Quadrangle under the supervision of Capt. Leo McDonough, post orientation officer. At the extreme left, Pvt. Curtis Griener, inspects a pair of Nazi infantry boots, and Pvt. Lee Falk and Robert McDonough inspect a machine gun. Looking at the emergency, all-rubber life boat are, from left to right, Lt. Saul Stein, Capt. Walter M. Taylor, Maj. Henry J. Coolidge, RC Orientation officer, Pvt. Jonathan Kilboe.

— ★ —
 touch of the Smithsonian In- STRAS AND STRIPES, the Brit- while. One visit each week wo ion has come to Fort Dev- ish Edition of YANK, and a copy be an excellent way to link the weekly Orientation