Dear Sue,

Since I can't write to Joe or Ben or any one else, I guess the other part of the Ogata family is the only thing left to work on. Poor Sue, she was a good egg. (In Memorium) I guess next week we'll both be on the ball again, won't we. On the ball as far as activity is concerned but mentally off the ball. (Don't speak for yourself, Shimoyama).

Better quit now, because that old Ogata dame is holding a whip over my head again.
