Dear Masao:-

Thank you ever and ever so much for the package of nice things you've sent me. We certainly appreciate your kindness and just cannot thank you enough for everything. Sugar & Agio - note and items that cannot be bought with money at the present in Japan so we are saving them up for special occasions. I suppose and hope that better times will come after August 15, when this trade business will commence.

Your folks wrote and said your wife is expecting in the near future so that means you will become a proud papa soon in the near future. I imagine your folks are looking very much forward to the event too, eh.

Come to think of it I believe it's exactly a year since you last visited us.
How time does fly. Do you ever wish you were back in Japan, again?
My appointment at the consulate is Aug. 19, so if all's well I may be seeing you again by the end of this year or beginning of next year.

Best regards to your wife,
brother and sisters.

Don't work too hard.

Always,
Flo.
