

Launch USO Drive to Raise Needed Funds

Much needed funds to furnish the USO house and help entertain visiting service men will be raised in a financial drive which opened Monday, Dec. 7, and will continue through Dec. 19. Shig Hashimoto, Hitoshi Fukui and Clarence Uno are in charge of the drive. They stressed that all funds raised will be kept within the center.

The drive is being conducted through voluntary contributions collected at the various mess halls. The USO Mothers' club will also assist in the drive.

At all large gatherings representatives of the USO committee will make appeals to colonists. Last Monday morning a group spoke at the block chairmen's meeting.

Tonight the Junior Hostesses will entertain 15 servicemen who are visiting Heart Mountain.
