BODDHISATTVA

There was a very ambitious man in a village. His name was Shumedha and he was a truth seeker. One day he heard that a noble teacher was coming to his village. Shumedha was overjoyed that he could see him and to listen to his teachings. On the day of arrival he went out to the boundary of the village to welcome the great teacher. There was a muddy place on the road and it was very difficult for the teacher to pass there without stepping into the mud. Young Shumedha saw this, and he laid down flat on the mud and told the noble teacher, "Please walk on me to get across this muddy place." "Oh, no, I can not walk on you", replied the teacher. "Oh noble teacher, you are too noble to walk in the mud. Please make a bridge of me and walk over me. It is my honor to be your bridge." The noble teacher seeing the mind of the young man, walked over him and came to the village. It is said that this young man, Shumedha, became a Buddha.

One who serves as a step or bridge for others will become a Buddha. One who serves is more worthy than those who are served. Bodhisattva, the one who will become a Buddha, is always ready to serve others willingly.

The east-side schools are located in the block 14 recreation halls and the block 15 grade school rooms. The five classes offered are taught by Rev. M. Kubose, Rev. T. Tsuruyama, Kimiko Uchida, Asako Kubo and Roy Higashi.
