VIII. MANAGER'S NOTES

This block 207, appointed Miss May Taketaya, Clerk in the Manager's office to attend the meeting called by Mr. Burdick in reference to feeding grade school children in the 210 Mess Hall at noons. The residents of this block with me included, believe this is just another beginning of a failure.

In the first place, non-paid volunteers will not be found in sufficient number to assist in this program since nearly all have small children that need constant attention.

In the second place, paid helpers already in the kitchens may go for the first few times, but they are not going to be bothered with other people's hard-to-handle children all the time.

Certainly, for the welfare of the children, a program such as the one suggested is good, for table manners and diets are certain to be improved, but the arguments against it is too great to justify the undertaking/
