

954e

2B

donated by
Stanley Umeda

INSTRUCTIONS TO TRAIN MONITOR

1. The Train Monitor will act as liason or contact man between the Train Commander and the Japanese passengers.
2. It will be the duty of the Train Monitor to look after the comfort, safety, and well being of the passengers, and will report any lack of the same to the train commander.
3. The Train Monitor will suggest suitable personell to act as car captains.
4. The Train Monitor will act as interpreter between the Japanese and the Train Commander.
5. The Train Monitor will check on all car captains to see that they carry out their duties as listed on their instruction sheets.