PACEMAKER BUILDING -- Phone: 63

There is absolutely no truth in the rumor that all planes not bearing the name PACEMAKER will be disqualified in the mammoth model plane contest to be held tomorrow--in which we have been asked to act as one of the judges.

We shall be as impartial as our feeble sense of honor will permit. Even if a discarded copy of the Manzanar Free Press (we're jealous) should come swirling by on a thermal, we shall clock it.

Whoa!

Frances Suenaga is one of the most puzzled Santa Anitaans today, reports Mutsuyo Uyeno.

It seems that Frances received a $23 COD notice from Montgomery Ward. As far as she remembered, she had not ordered anything from them and so had no idea what was in the surprise package.

She opened it with some trepidation, and well she might, for the package contained a pair of horse-collars.

'Unfortunately, they were not my size,' she says.

Social whirl

The Education division's shindig of earlier in the week found us looking down at the festivities from the window of the mimeographing room where we were busily putting out the Wednesday PACEMAKER.

But we made sure of having the necessary leisure to attend the birthday party for two of our reporters, Anna Sakaizawa and Mutsuyo 'Smudge' Uyeno.

In fact, we worked so hard during the day getting our desk cleared of all business that we were almost too tired to enjoy the party.

Behind the ears, too?

We think this item would normally belong in Sammy's Femme Form column--but we saw it first. Anyway, an ad in a Thursday morning's Los Angeles newspaper extols 'Water Lily Cleansing Cream' which we think is gilding the lily.

Editorial

Translate Beliefs into Action

Anti-semitism, that peculiarly fascistic phenomenon, has a closer relation to Americans of Japanese ancestry and to their issei parents than most of us realize.

When the thoughtless nisei or issei makes the mistake of indulging in derogatory remarks about the Jewish people in general, or about any other racial minority group, whether it be Negroes, Mexicans or Filipinos, he is toying with a dangerous boomerang.

To indulge in any form of race-baiting is to play directly into the hands of the Axis. Any person guilty of race-baiting is participating in a definitely fascistic act whether consciously or unconsciously. Sometimes a few of us may have erred along these lines in an unconscious fashion, purely from thoughtlessness and carelessness rather than from deliberate malicious intent.

Yet, ignorance is no excuse when a harm is done. Before one opens his mouth to make a critical remark about the "Jews," it would be wise to stop, count to ten, and ask yourself, "Is this true?" "Is this necessary?" "Is it discreet?"

This goes for making observations about any people of any race or nationality.

The building of a sound democracy is not only fighting abroad, but also putting into practise at home those principles which we profess to believe. Our daily life translates our beliefs into practical action--this is the yardstick which measures one as democratic, as American, as just. Passive racial tolerance is not enough, as most of us have discovered.

Intelligent understanding must be coupled with aggressive action.--by Mary Oyama.
