

Keep Off Grass

Center gardeners working under Lynn Thomas in the Labor department today asked residents to stay off the grass along 5th avenue, the paddock area and in front of the Grandstand.

Residents were also requested not to destroy shrubbery and flowers.

ISSUE CLOTHING SET

Approved Lists To Be Posted at Information Centers Tomorrow

Only heads of families may apply for and receive the clothing allotted by the government, the Service division stressed today when releasing the details of the clothing issuance, which is to be supervised by Mike Miyake.

Approved lists will be posted at information centers tomorrow. Catalogs from Sears, Roebuck and Co., which was awarded the contract, will appear soon.

The issuance is retroactive to the date of the entry of the family into the Center. It is not necessary to use up the credit which is cumulative.

Census takers will notify applicants so residents should act only after being notified. The corresponding section of each district will be called simultaneously.

Amory Returns to WPA

Takes Over Responsibilities Of New War Works Program

Due to increased responsibility in his capacity as Work Projects administrator for southern California, H. Russell Amory, Santa Anita assembly center manager, will return to WPA headquarters in Los Angeles, it was announced today.

Under plans developed at a meeting last week in Hi, Chief!

Davis Named Police Head

Appointment of Roscoe D. Davis as new chief of internal police at Santa Anita was announced today by Maj. Ray Ashworth, chief of the Interior Security branch of assembly centers.

Prior to his arrival here Friday, Davis was chief of internal police at the North Portland assembly center since its opening.

A native of Kentucky, Chief Davis is 45 years of age, having spent the first 25 years in that state. He lived in Oregon for the last 20 years. He is married and has two grown daughters.

The genial chief served as a member of the Oregon state police for five years. Prior to his North Portland position, Davis was general manager of the Packard Portland company.

He is a war veteran, having enlisted and served overseas during the first World war.

Since 1918 flying has been his chief hobby with golf ranking second.

Salt Lake City which was attended by Amory, the new war public works program is to be integrated with the WPA. This means that under the Lanham act the WPA state office in Los Angeles, headed by Amory, is now authorized to receive and process applications for war public works.

Amory defined these as essential projects having the endorsement of either the Army, Navy, Maritime commission or the War Production board.

"After the application has been processed here," Amory explained, "it will be sent to the regional (Continued on page 2)

SCHOOL CLOSED IN AFTERNOON

Afternoon sessions of the Center's elementary school will be halted beginning Monday, disclosed Edward J. England, Recreation chief, today.

The Recreation hall will be used for recreation purposes instead, he said.

The elementary school will inaugurate a three-day week schedule. Children who are attending morning classes are to report on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays while those who now attend afternoon classes are to report on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

PAYCHECKS SATURDAY

Beginning Saturday afternoon, fourth paychecks will be distributed to Center workers, announced Gene W. Wilbur, assistant Center manager, today.

Camouflage workers will be the first to obtain paychecks with the balance of the workers receiving them next week, according to Wilbur.

The schedule for the distribution of checks next week is being prepared by Wilbur and Center Cashier Clyde Lambourne. It will be published in the Saturday issue of the PACEMAKER.

These paychecks apply to the period between June 16 and July 15.

More than 150 paychecks for the fiscal period of May 16 to June 15 are still unclaimed, Center Cashier Clyde Lambourne disclosed today.

Center workers who are eligible for paychecks for this period were asked by Lambourne to claim them during this week at the Cashier's window.

Varied Experiences of Center Mailmen Reported

"Through wind, rain and storm, the mail must go."

This motto holds true in Santa Anita as elsewhere, and mailmen here lead anything but a dull life.

Frank Hisatomi, one of the hardest working mail carriers in District VI, says, "I'm literally greeted with open arms. People are tickled to get mail."

During his spare time Hisatomi has been making a pair of knitting bag handles of scrap wood.

Another District VI mailman, Las Hoshi, recently delivered a singing birthday telegram in his best baritone voice. He has also created a pair of bright red getas at the office.

Residents of District V claim the most colorful post office in the Center as Tosh Matsuoka, industrious foreman, has decorated a section of the office with sample wall paper.

An excited young lady recently shook the hand of a District III mailman who delivered an airmail package from Hawaii. It contained a diamond engagement ring.

Other District III mail carriers report that the people in their district are extremely hospitable and that they are often treated to watermelon, ice cream, ice water, lemonade, milk or coffee.

Frank Ishii says, "I actually enjoy hot days because people offer me lemonade and ice cream when I am on my route."

All carriers agree that their shoes do not last long and are glad that shoes have been issued to them.

Mailmen appreciate people who have mailboxes in front of their units and those who do not ask for their mail before the carriers come to their units.

They have one request to make. When you move, they want you to leave your forwarding address.--by Betty Kanameishi.

At the appointed time, he will apply for his family's clothing at the application unit, 25 Man o' War avenue, which is in charge of Saburo Muraoka.

After the application is checked by the Finance department, the order will go to the Supply and Warehouse department. When the goods are delivered, the census taker will notify the recipient. The issuance unit, under Richard Kubota's direction, is at 26 Man o' War avenue.

Center residents should check the approved list and catalogs at an early date to plan their orders in advance. Goods may not be returned even if unsatisfactory.

Amory stated that when a war public works project is operated through WPA it will be done by contract, with the payment of prevailing wages. WPA will also continue its program of relief projects, he stated.

As WPA administrator, Amory's duties in the southern California area will necessitate his full time at headquarters in Los Angeles.

Dr. Kenzie Nozaki Leaves for Guayule Research at Manzanar

To assist on the guayule project at Manzanar, Dr. Kenzie Nozaki left the Center Sunday morning.

Dr. Nozaki, who was personally escorted to Manzanar by Dr. Robert Emerson of the California Institute of Technology, will conduct research on the rubber-bearing plant.

The second son of Mr.

and Mrs. S. Nozaki, he is a UCLA graduate and received his master's degree there. Dr. Nozaki received his Ph.D. at Stanford university.

He formerly taught chemistry in seminar classes in the Center.

Besides his parents, Dr. Nozaki has two brothers, Al and Mits, residing here.

The camouflage workers look up from their nets and see happy expressions on the middle aged faces of men and women studying English. Now the students are capable of writing letters to their relatives and friends.

We think the following two letters, composed by students in Tsuruko Katayama's class, exemplify the students' enthusiasm despite their difficulty in learning.

"Dear Mrs. Brown,

How are you? I am feeling fine.

I am going to school everyday. I am learning writing and reading. But I cannot so much memorize. So I am too old."

"Dear George,

These beautiful Summer days we are just fine over here.

What are you doing everyday in Poston, Arizona. I am going to school everyday learning my English language."

"They are a pleasure to teach," the teachers say of their pupils, most of whom are over 40 with grown children. "They are so grateful for the opportunity to learn and so willing in spite of their halting pronunciation," Tsuruko comments.

Some of them, like Mrs. Utako Kano, go without lunch so that they may stay for the afternoon classes. Unlike unruly youngsters, these students are as sensitive as they are enthusiastic. For example, they dislike to recite standing up.

The nisei teachers, 25 of them, are doing an inestimable job of breaking down the barrier which exists between the issei parents and their children.

We repeat again that as the column head denotes this space is open to anyone who has problems or solutions to them. We would like to receive written opinions, not those via the party line system.

BUDDHIST

A sermon on "The Teachings of Karma" was delivered by the Rev. Chikara Aso at Sunday's issei Buddhist service in the Grandstand. The Rev. Reichi Mohri was chairman.

On Saturday the Catholic congregation will celebrate the Feast of the Assumption.

"The Will of God" was the sermon of the Rt. Rev. W. Bertrand Stevens, Episcopal Bishop of the Los Angeles diocese. The Rev. John H. M. Yamazaki was the chairman. Yoshiko Arimatsu sang "My Task."

The song leader was Mas Satow.

Jupiter Pluvius Blesses Center Serenaders

Play at Dance

"Do you think it will?"
"It probably won't."
"I wish it would."
"So do I."

It did. The darkened skies finally let loose and the rains came to Santa Anita Sunday.

A welcome change from the usual too, too sunny weather, the rain, a sprinkle in the morning and a genuine down-to-earth torrent in the evening, was received kindly by inhabitants here whose comments after the downpour were:

"It was a relief."
"It felt good."
"I liked it."

If there were any dissenting voices in the assembly, they went unheard in the shower of praise for Jupiter Pluvius.

The people's sentiment can be summed up in the remark:

"I wish it would rain again."--by Miyuki Aoyama.

The Starlight Serenaders, the Center's own dance orchestra made their first public appearance in several weeks at the community dance Saturday in front of the Grandstand.

A Birthday request number, "Always," was played for Edna Amamoto. Chairman John Saito reminded the public that request numbers will be played if the requests are made at the Recreation office or with Saito by Friday noon.

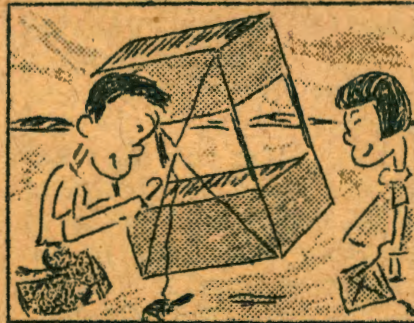

Postponed one week, a dance featuring the recordings of Glenn Miller's band will be held Saturday.

Colorful kites of all sizes and shapes decorate the Santa Anita sky and telephone wires every evening.

Adults as well as youngsters have been taken by the sport. Mrs. Kimi Suzuki, caught flying Junior's kite, maintained; "I think the youngsters get more fun out of this."

Mrs. Matsutaro Iwatsubo, 17-C 7th avenue, said, "Lil Neebo is so popular that my husband has made a Lil Neebo kite for my daughter."

The kite, about one foot square, has Lil Neebo's face painted on it in water colors. His cap is bright red with white stripes and his bow tie is blue with white polka dots.

A Green mess worker, Heshiro Otani, flies an airplane box kite made from material salvaged while at work. The frame is built of an apple box and it is papered with orange wrappers. The kite is tied together with potato sack strings, but despite its crude appearance, Otani says it flies well.

If one looks at Frank Izumigawa's pair of kites flying, he might think that they had somehow become tangled. But, explained Izumigawa, "They are two kites, newly mated, on a single string."--by Mutsuyo Uyeno.

A Southern motif will be used in the vaudeville variety show to be held by the Recreation department at the end of this month, Sam Seno said today.

Yamada was with the US Navy for 30 years.
