

These pictures were taken early in camp life, note the lack of flowers, shrubs, vines, and trees, and imagine the hot Texas sun beating down.

Each housekeeping unit is arranged for family style cooking and with the exception of the Victory Huts, which it was necessary to add to accommodate a population in excess of that planned for, each unit was provided with running water and a kitchen sink.

There were six types, shelters, cottages, triplex, duplex, quadruplex and Victory Huts, there were latrines facilities for the victory huts and quadruplex area.
