

Because of the Texas heat Santa Claus or "Knecht Ruprecht", as he was more commonly known here, was unable to travel with his usual reindeer.

He was however able to procure two G.I. mules and an old wagon and with these he made his calls on Christmas Eve.

1943

