

On December 1, 1945 - 101 internees started on their way to Germany.

162 Japanese internees left for Hawaii

1236 Japanese began the long journey back to Japan on December 2, 1945

These were all voluntary repatriates, thus within twenty-four hours we lost almost half of our camp population.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1945

SAN ANTONIO EVENING NEWS

National and International Events by Associated Press Wirephoto Service

Japs Are Repatriated From Internment Camps in Texas

ON THEIR WAY HOME TO JAPAN—This is the Hiyarama family and friends, one of the groups of Jap repatriates who boarded the liner Matsonia in Seattle for removal to Japan. Most came from Texas internment camp.—Associated Press WIREPHOTO.