Youth Drowns While Swimming In Canal

Tragedy struck Heart Mountain Saturday when Toru Shibata, 13, of 22-19-C, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ei Shibata, drowned about 3:15 p.m., while swimming in the Garland canal 200 yards northwest of the center garbage pit. An attempt to save the boy was made by his friends, but due to the swift current the rescue proved unsuccessful as the boy sank out of sight.

After searching parties of several hundred residents labored more than 21 hours, the body was recovered at 12:48 p.m. Sunday approximately 450 yards downstream from where it was last seen.

An inquest will be held at 10 a.m. tomorrow in Powell by Ray Easton, county coroner, to determine the cause of the drowning.

The administration and the internal security wish to extend their appreciation to the residents for their splendid cooperation under trying conditions during the tragedy.

The former Sacramento, Calif., lad is survived by his parents and a brother, Kaoru.

Funeral arrangements are pending.

Appeals for 63 Residents Filed in United States District Court

Notices of appeal were filed in United States district court in Cheyenne, Saturday, in behalf of the 63 Heart Mountain residents sentenced to three years imprisonment on convictions of failure to report for preinduction physical examinations, according to word received here.

The notices alleged each defendant had been deprived of his rights as a citizen by "being confined in a relocation center surrounded by a barbed or other wire fence, guarded by the military force of the United States and restrained of his liberty without due process of law and in violation of the Constitution of the United States."

Thirty of those convicted are awaiting transportation to the McNeil island federal prison, and the other 33 to Leavenworth federal penitentiary.

THANK YOU

For the fine cooperation and untiring efforts of the residents of Heart Mountain and administrative personnel for their search for Toru Shibata, we wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation.

Ei Shibata, father, 22-19-C
Miyoko Shibata, mother
Kaoru Shibata, brother
