

Questionnaire

Name

Address

When did you leave Boston?

Are you on seasonal or indefinite leave?

I Are you working for pay?

What is your position?

What are your hours and pay?

Do you think your position is the right one for you?

Why, or why not?

What is it that you wish now that you had learned before you went to work?

If you were a '44 graduate in Camp Two to what extent did you find the Gentry Vocational Inventory helpful in choosing your field of work?

What did you do in school that is particularly helpful to you now?

II Are you studying? What?

Are you enrolled in an institution? Classification?

What vocation are you preparing for?

Is it the right vocation for you?

Why, or why not?

What is it that you wish now that you had learned before you started your present program?

If you were a '44 graduate in Camp Two to what extent did you find the Gentry Vocational Inventory helpful in choosing your vocation?

What did you do in school that is particularly helpful to you now?

To what extent do you think emphasis should be made on the study of English?

How do you now think English should be studied?

Where should the emphasis be on social problems?

What methods do you think best in solving these problems?

What special courses helped you most?

How or why?

List all positions (with dates) you have had since you left Boston.