The meeting of the various committees was held at the Methodist Church on Feb. 12, 1933 at 8:12 P. M.

The various reports were given by the chairmans of various committees. It was reported by the registration chair~~man~~ that the registration fee will be 35¢ instead of 50¢ as in the previous years. The banquet chr. announced that the luncheon will be 20¢ and the banquet for 40¢ due to the depression. The picture will be 50¢.

Miss Keiko Satow volunteered to do the publicity since Mr. George Furuya was quite busy with the literary work. Miss Margie Uno has kindly volunteered to conduct the quiet hour again this year.

As the deputation committee Mr. George Inagaki, Mr. Oki, Mr. Mayada, Mr. Hara, + Miss Muroaka volunteered to go to Loomis, Walnut Grove, and Florin respectively.

"Just as I am Thine own to Be" was selected as our theme song.

The theme for the conference is "Face to Face with the living Christ." And the sub-topic which we have chosen is:

A In my own religious life.

1. What it means to be a Christian.

B. Belief. +

2. Comradeship with Christ - Personal religious experiences.
 3. Personal responsibility to the Church.
- B. In meeting the problems of to-day.

1. War.
2. Economic distress - depression, unemployment.
3. Prohibition and law enforcement.
