The Meeting of the Program Committee

Monday, January 16, 1928 7:30 P.M.

at Methodist Church

The program committee was called forth immediately in order to consider the program of the coming conference. With much discussion and thought, the committee decided to have a motto "Loyalty to Christ." Two topics of discussion were suggested by four ministers of facts which are as follows: "The Value of Western Civilization" and "The Value of Cultivating Good Taste." With little time left, the committee proceeded the program.

Council Meeting

Thursday, January 26, 1928 4 P.M.

Presbyterian Church

Council meeting was called forth to consider the speakers for this sectional conference. Rev. Green takes the place of Rev. Bayles ^(unable to attend) as a leader for open forums. Rev. Macaulay was selected as a speaker for the devotional services, Rev. Lagastival for the mass meeting, and either Mr. Gessitt or Mrs. Heron for an address at the banquet. For fear that there are going to be so many more delegates this year than the previous years, the committee decided to borrow the First Baptist Church (9th bet. L. & M) instead of Methodist Church as it had been planned. American center was selected for Sunday's programs (instead of Presby. Church).

Meeting adjourned at 5:30 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Akiko Taketa, secret.
