Manzanar, Calif.

Dear James;

How's the old boy feeling today, happy, sad, or are you O.K.? Oh yab, I'm O.K. Well the heat seems to be declining a little here, but it's still hot though. How's the weather in Florin?

Oh James, I finally finish the little map of Manzanar, well it's a sloppy job, but I think it will give a rough idea of the Manzanar Relocation Center. There are lots of things missing from the map too!

And I'm sending you the 1944 Annual of Manzanar High School, so after you finish looking at it, will you send it back to me?, because we only bought one annual.

You send that you didn't get Elk Grove's 1944 "Elk" but you did get 1943's Elk hub, is that right? Well I was wondering if you could send the 1943 Elk to me and I'll send it back to you when I finish looking at it.

I presume you ~~sent~~ signed up for the Selective Service hub? It won't be long now ~~before~~ when you will be wearing the U.S. Army's Uniform. When does the Elk Grove
High School start?

How is your turkeys coming along? Boy! I bet, it's good to be working on the farm like that hub?

Well I gotta get some shut-eye
so I'll close here.

Your pal
Leo

Don't strain your eyes
looking at the girls too much James.
