

Dear Daddy;

I love you very much and when are you going to come home. I got a little dolly from the girl. To-day is Arthur's birthday and I am going to his party. I am going to take him a tinker-toy and a book. I played with the tinker-toys but don't you tell any one. Okay? I got some nice hair clips for my hair.

I got some nice petticoats, too. I am going to wear my new dress to the party---My mamma made it for me. My fishes fight.

I love you. Dear daddy. Pops gave me some glue. I am going to make a picture and paste it on.

Marilyn came here. We got in the bath tub and Marilyn cried. I threw water at her and she threw water back at me. I wish you would come home. You didn't come for about seven or twenty years. I missed you. You didn't come home on Saturday.

Mrs. Liesendorf called and we are all going on a boat trip after you come home. We are going on Mamma's boat.

When my fingernails grow my mamma is going to bring me to the Riverview but they aren't growing very fast because I keep biting / them.

I am getting bigger and bigger and I am almost six years old. Pretty soon I am going to go into the first grade. I know how to spell your name--NAKAMURA. Dear George I love you very much. I'll bet you will think I am the batan girl calling you Georgel

Anne came here. We had a good time and we went out to play on Sunday. Anne lives at Blue Island.

Now I want to do my kisses. and my flowers.
