Dear Daddy;

I have a phonograph. I love you very much. What kind of a suit did you have for halloween? I have a clown suit with a shakey shakey and a think that goes around and goes ding a ling. What are you going to get for me for Christmas? Thank you for the harmonica. I played it.

May I have a nice little story book. I want a Micky Mouse story book. When are you coming home? You are a nice daddy. I like nice daddy's like you. Thank you for fixing my phonograph. That's all.
