COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS

December 29, 1944

EVERARD H. SMITH, CLERK
JOHN W. R. SMITH, ASST. CLERK

Mrs. Mary Yamasnira,
Cathburn Apts,
South 6020 Harper St.,
Chicago, Ill

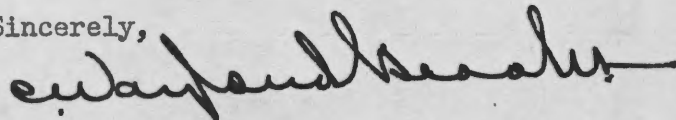

My dear Mrs. Yamasnira:

I just received notice from the War Department that your brother, 2nd Lt. Frank S. Okusako, was wounded while serving his country in our gallant army.

I sincerely hope that your anxiety and deep concern will soon be relieved by word from him direct advising that his injury was not serious and that he is on his way to speedy recovery.

From personal experience I am familiar with the injuries and anxieties resulting from the gruelling experiences of war, and I hasten to express to you my sympathy and my appreciation for the gallant service rendered our beloved country by your courageous brother.

Sincerely,

CWB:F

C. Wayland Brooks
