

All of these developments are steps forward toward a day when all loyal individuals will again be accepted into the American society and permitted to share the freedom and liberties as an American citizen. To this end, the War Relocation Authority has dedicated its whole-hearted effort.

AMACHE

A FEW FACTS AT A GLANCE

Granada Relocation Center, James G. Lindley,
Project director

Location, southeastern Colorado, Prowers County.

Population, 6,550, tenth largest in the State.

Number of evacuees working, 2663

Number of administrative personnel, 156

Number of Volunteers for U.S. Army, 160

Nearest towns, Granada  $1\frac{1}{2}$  miles, Holly 10 miles,
Lamar 17 miles

Hospital, 150-bed capacity.

Vital Statistics, Birth 199 up to January 31, 1944

Death, 47 up to January 31, 1944

High School, 24 rooms, 600-student capacity.

Internal Security, three WRA officers, 30 evacuee police

Water Supply, four wells, total pumping capacity 1000 gal. per. min. Two storage tanks, 200,000
and 25,000 gallons.

Climate, Generally dry	15.75 inches
Average rainfall (annual)	15.75 inches
Average snowfall	23.40 inches
Average low temperature	31.1 degree F.
Average high temperature	77.8 degree F.
Average for the whole year	54.4 degree F.

Elevation, 3,592 feet,

Community Enterprises:

- Dry Goods Store
- Variety Store
- Shoe Store
- Canteen
- Barber Shop
- Beauty Parlor
- Shoe Repair Shop
- Watch Repair Shop
- Cleaning and Pressing Agency
- Radio Repair Shop
- Optometry
- Newspaper Department

Silk Screen Shop, prints Navy posters.

Area

Amache-----	640
Koen Ranch-----	5,688
X Y Ranch-----	4,095
Granada Relocation Project-----	10,423

Principle Industry, agriculture.

Average length of growing season, 166 days.

Newspaper, Granada Pioneer, circulation 3,500, published bi-weekly.

Cover designed and printed through the courtesy of Silk Screen Shop.

Drawing by Tom Yabu.