Dear George -

Say, Thanks a lot for those delicious candies and it seems I'm always on the thanking end so if there's anything you want which I could get hold of just you tell me!

That picture you sent me of yourself sure looks like the George I saw two years ago in almost all my classes. You haven't change a bit, have you? Sorry I couldn't send you mine right now cause we aren't allowed to have cameras in this area.

Weather here's been fine nowadays, slightly hot but passing.

Read in the Sacramento Union of the Florin fire. Have you seen the ruins? It must of been a pretty bad fire. Seems like there's too much fire hazards now - a days. Port Chicago blew up too I've read and I don't like this fire business.

Guess you're hard nowadays, which makes me all the more grateful for sending me those candies, costing you a fortune of hard earned money isn't it?

I'm already 18 and I'm waiting to be called into the Army in the next few months. I was to have my preinduction physical on the 20th of July but due to some damn questionnaire on Japanese ancestry I'll be going in sometime in August instead.

If I could remember correctly your birthday is plenty close isn't it. Sometime in ~~the~~^{August} ~~was it?~~ was it? Maybe we'll meet up in some ^{army} camp or overseas.

No hope of my finishing high school unless I'm turned downed for physical reasons and I think I should pass the physical easily enough.

How is your brother getting along? Is Jim still a little taller than you and as absent minded (don't tell him) as ever? And is Jack as poly poly as ever? It sure would be nice if I could see all of you again.

Maybe you've been wondering why I haven't written as regularly and early as I should but it seems I always forget when I have an idle time and remember when I'm busy so it keeps being delayed. Rude, especially when I send in gift of a box of candy.

Say, what is your ~~opinion~~ opinion, (can't spell it correctly), opinion (was right the second time ^{but} wasn't (sure) of the coming November election?

Well be closing now so till I hear from you I remain

Yours truly
Jennett

P.S. What do you mean "to hell with the sons and daughters of the Golden West".
