Dear Mrs. Waegell:

Am very sorry that I haven't been able to write any sooner. The letter that was sent to me never got to me because my sister lost it in Ogden. A couple of days later I received from the Freight Company a postcard telling me to call for the box of fruit but I haven't been able to get ^{it} till last Saturday and was so busy sorting potatoes that I forgot to write to you.

Oh yes, thanks so much for the fruits. I haven't ate any persimmons since I left California. That's two years. All the family wants to thank you for it. The Pomegranate was awfully good. It's so high now. About 15¢ for one that the only time I ate it was the first time I came here. Now when sister makes fudge it'll be with walnuts thanks to you. Well I hope you'll have a very merry Christmas and a happy New Year. Jay since you wrote the post card and I ~~haven't~~ didn't get my letter

I'm wondering if Georgie's all right.
Hope he isn't one of those flu victims that's spreading now. So far I've steering clear of it and I'm steering clear of it I hope.

Well I hope you'll ~~keep~~ ^{and} ~~stay~~ ^{also} the best of family, be okay forever so I'll be closing now.

Yours truly:
Kenneth Hoie

P.S. Thanks again so much for the fine fruit. And here's hoping again of a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

After ⁵ days, return to
