Tulelake Reunion V
Sacramento, California
May 19 and 20, 1995

Fellow Tulelakérs:

It is a pleasure and privilege to welcome you to Tulelake Reunion V on behalf of the members of the committee. We are very grateful that so many of you have traveled great distances to attend this reunion. We hope that your stay in Sacramento will be a pleasant one.

Fifty years ago, the end came to the war that gave birth to the "camps" that brought many of us together. While being incarcerated was a traumatic experience, it also gave birth to many friendships and cherished memories. Reunion V gives us another opportunity to share those memories with our friends and to make new friends.

Hopefully, Reunion V will add another enjoyable event to your life.

With fond regards,

Tom Okubo

Dear Friends:

I would like to take this opportunity to welcome each of you to the Fifth Tule Lake Reunion. As a fellow Tulean, it is an honor to be associated with this program. I commend the organizers of this great event for utilizing the valuable lessons learned from our redress victory and for using those lessons positively, to heal our wounds and pass our history onto younger generations.

Revisiting this painful period in our past is never easy, but it is only by reclaiming our past that we can truly address the stigma and shame that accompanied our internment. This gathering will serve notice to future generations that the principle of justice must be protected and never taken for granted.

Please accept my congratulations and best wishes for what I know will be an enjoyable and rewarding event.

Very truly yours,

Welcome Participants of the Tulelake Reunion V!

Best wishes for a fun and memorable get together. Among the most meaningful and precious of life's events are the times one can visit with old friends and recount shared experiences.

Your reunion symbolizes the best of what it means to be an American, and represents what Americans can achieve in the face of adversity. Persons of Japanese descent had every reason to turn their backs on this nation. Instead, the community rallied around the very principles of citizenship, and elevated the principles to ideals for all Americans to embrace.

Congratulations to the Tule Lake Committee and attendees for a successful fifth reunion.

Sincerely,

PATRICK JOHNSTON

Greetings!

On behalf of the Sacramento County Board of Supervisors, I wish to welcome you to this year's Tulelake Reunion. I especially wish to extend a special welcome to those who have traveled great distances, such as from Japan, Hawaii, and Alaska, to attend this special reunion in Sacramento.

It is wonderful that so many past internees from the Tulelake Relocation Camp will gather together to visit with other internees, to rekindle old friendships, and to share common memories. Some of the memories, of course, will be sad and painful, but I hope those attending the reunion will be reminded of the significant role they played in America's history. It was a grave injustice for American citizens of Japanese ancestry to be imprisoned during World War II. Constitutional rights were clearly violated. It should have never occurred. I hope it will never occur again, to any group of Americans. Hopefully, a lesson was learned for future generations.

I am pleased that my husband, Don, and I will be able to attend the Sayonara dinner on May 20, 1995. I enjoy attending events in the Sacramento community, as well as attending events in Los Angeles and Washington, D.C., relating to the Japanese American experience. These events are always moving and meaningful to me. Thank you for inviting me to be a part of your reunion.

Sincerely,

ILLA COLLIN, Supervisor

Greetings!

Few events afford me such great pleasure as the Fifth Tulelake Reunion on May 19 - 20, 1995 at the Red Lion Inn in light of the opportunity it provides to me to extend my congratulations on this extraordinary, auspicious occasion and the privilege of welcoming you to the City of Sacramento.

Since the onset in 1942 of one of the most infamous and darkest chapters in our nation's history, when persons of Japanese descent were interned without regard to their rights, status, or loyalty as Americans, regrettably, the subsequent 53 years have seen the loss of most of you who entered the gates of Tulelake War Relocation Center. Consequently, it is my sincere hope this reunion will be especially significant for you, the longest survivors of that devastating period, as you remember and recount experiences shared with each other and with those who now live in memory only.

As a City Councilmember and as a representative of our Asian community, I want to express my appreciation for the honor you have bestowed upon Sacramento by selecting our City to host your reunion. While I am unable to join you, my best wishes go to each of you for a successful and memorable reunion, along with my hope you will take advantage of the sites and attractions Sacramento has to offer.

Sincerely,

JIMMIE R. YEE

"THE JAPANESE AMERICAN LEGACY"

A SYMPOSIUM

It has been 53 years since President Roosevelt signed Executive Order No. 9066, which removed 120,000 persons of Japanese ancestry from the west coast during World War II.

This action was taken without charges or trial, simply because of the ancestry of the evacuees. It has been generally agreed that "The Evacuation" is the most flagrant abrogation of civil rights on record in this country.

In the half century since 1942, Japanese Americans have raised themselves by their bootstraps and have made a remarkable recovery into the mainstream of American life.

Today, we have assembled an outstanding panel of Nisei and Sansei leaders to assess the status of Japanese Americans today, and to recall the difficult paths that many Nikkei were forced to travel in order to survive the devastating removal from homes, farms and businesses. We may also come up with some observations as to what the future holds for us, "The Japanese Americans."

MODERATOR:

Wayne Maeda

He helped develop a course called "Asian American Experience" in 1970 and began teaching at California State University at Sacramento in 1971.

On the 50th anniversary of the evacuation of all Japanese Americans from the West Coast, he designed and installed a major historical exhibit for the Sacramento History Museum entitled "Japanese Americans: Story of a People."

PANELISTS:

Carole Hayashino

Sansei community leader, former Acting Director National JACL.

Fred Korematsu

Challenged the U.S. Government's order that removed 120,000 Japanese Americans from the west coast.

William M. Marutani

1975-1986 Judge, Court of Common Pleas, Pennsylvania. Only Nikkei on President's Committee on Evacuation and Redress.

Dale Minami

Doctor of Jurisprudence from University of California School of Law. Lead attorney in coram nobis court action which overturned the conviction of Fred Korematsu.

Priscilla Ouchida

As key aide to then Assemblyman Patrick Johnston, she was architect and motivation behind several pieces of legislation which protected redress and reparation payments from State of California income tax.

Mary Tsukamoto

Educator, activist and author. She has been instrumental in the education of thousands of Californians about the story of the Japanese Americans and the evacuation.

Dr. Clifford Uyeda

JACL National Redress Chair, President National JACL 1978-1980, President National Japanese American Historical Society 1988-1994.

JAPANESE AMERICAN NATIONAL MUSEUM

A special kind of museum—breaking new ground in the way that cultural heritage is preserved and presented.

Thousands of visitors and program participants across the country are proclaiming that the Japanese American National Museum is a leader in presenting history in a relevant and compelling way.

The nation agrees. Here's what the national media has been saying about the Japanese American National Museum and its current, record-breaking exhibit, "America's Concentration Camps"—

"The Japanese American National Museum literally has brought back a piece of a generation's haunting history."

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

"... Visitors are flocking to the Museum. The history lesson... of the Museum... is clear. The Japanese Americans were never a threat to the country's war effort"

—CNN HEADLINE NEWS

"They are unveiling powerful memories at the Museum... It's a major exhibit."

—KABC, LOS ANGELES

"An historic exhibit... it tells of the lives of those who lived in the camps... a very powerful look."

—KNBC, LOS ANGELES

"The new exhibit demands that the terrible story of World War II's Japanese internment camps never be forgotten."

—SACRAMENTO BEE

"Overarching the show is the message: Prevention of future concentration camps begins with remembering what happened during World War II."

—AGENCE FRANCE PRESSE

"... A museum exhibit to explain what happened at camps like Heart Mountain and what fear and suspicion can do."

AULD LANG SYNE

WILLIAM M. MARUTANI

Bill Marutani, as a young internee in Tulelake in the summer of 1942, worked as a live-wire reporter on the Tulean Dispatch.

After completing his schooling, he put up his shingle as an attorney in Philadelphia. From 1975 to 1986 he served as Judge, Court of Common Pleas, First Judicial District, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

In 1967, on behalf of amicus Japanese American Citizens League presented oral argument before U.S. Supreme Court in Loving v. Virginia, striking down anti-miscegenation laws in 16 states.

In 1981, he was appointed by the President to the "Commission on Wartime Relocation and Internment of Civilians," which investigated the causes of the uprooting and confinement during World War II of 115,000 Japanese Americans and their parents residing in Washington, Oregon and California. Submitted findings, with recommendations, to the Congress and President.

He is now back in private practice in Philadelphia.

IRENE Y. HIRANO

*Executive Director and President
Japanese American National Museum*

Since 1988, Irene Y. Hirano has been the Executive Director and President of the Japanese American National Museum. Under Ms. Hirano's guidance, the Museum reached its Phase I goal of raising $13 million to renovate its historic headquarters in Los Angeles' Little Tokyo and to open the Museum to the public in 1992.

Ms. Hirano is now leading the way as the Museum embarks on its Phase II campaign to construct an 80,000 square-foot expansion pavilion, created long term exhibitions and programs and build an endowment fund for the future operations and programs. Drawings for the pavilion have been drawn up by the internationally-known firm, Hellmuth, Obata and Kassabaum and research has already begun on the core exhibitions.

Having earned a bachelor of science and masters degree in public administration from the University of Southern California, Ms. Hirano has served on numerous state and national boards and commissions. Appointed by President William Clinton in 1994, she is currently a member of the President's Commission on the Future. She is on the Board of the Los Angeles Educational Alliance for Restructuring Now (LEARN) and Marlborough School. She has served on the Boards of Leadership Education for Asian Pacifics (LEAP), Liberty Hill Foundation, California Commission on the Status of Women and the National Network of Asian and Pacific Women.

Auld Lang Syne

Should auld acquaintance be forgot
and never brought to mind?

Should auld acquaintance be forgot
and days of Auld Lang Syne?

For Auld Lang Syne, my dear
For Auld Lang Syne

We'll take a cup o' kindness yet
For Auld Lang Syne.
