

STEPS IN ORGANIZATION OF
PROPOSED HEART MOUNTAIN CONSUMERS COOPERATIVE, INC.

1. Written plan for preliminary steps in organization of a cooperative to be submitted to the project director for approval.
2. After approval by the project director, the plan to be submitted to the vote of the residents by blocks.
3. If plan approved by majority of residents voting in a majority of the blocks, subscriptions for membership will be taken.
4. After due publicity and advertising for an election, three delegates be elected from each block to form a permanent Committee of Delegates. Only subscribers to membership only shall be eligible to vote in the election. The delegate polling the highest vote in each block becomes the delegate polling the second highest vote in each block becomes the alternate.
5. Permanent Committee of Delegates shall draft the proposed articles of incorporation, by-laws and other necessary instruments with project attorney.
6. Proposed articles of incorporation, by-laws and other necessary instruments submitted to the project director, and members and subscribers to membership.
7. Incorporate under the District of Columbia Cooperative law.
8. Board of Directors shall elect the executive office and other necessary employees.
9. Execution of agreement with the War Relocation Authority and Heart Mountain Relocation Center.
10. Transfer of the businesses of temporary Community Center to the cooperative, and the assumption by the cooperative of the surplus.