

My dear Mrs. Waegell,

Tonight I have nothing particular thing to do, so I will grab this chance to write a letter.

Are all of your family getting along fine? I hope you all the best of health and condition.

Thank you so much for sending us the tea we ordered, but you didn't name the price. I received the package very late. It was long time after the last letter you wrote. You see you did not write the address, so it was forwarded to another 'Takagi' in this center. At the same time I didn't know the package was at the post office until they printed my name in the newspaper saying that a package was there for me. So I think it was better late than never.

At this center things goes on as usual. At the present they are trying hard to prepare buildings for all the students that are grammar, Hi-School and college.

I think they got every thing ready now but only thing is about the caucasian teachers. Very few are coming so I hope every thing will ^{be} alright later.

Of course there isn't any school for my sister, probably she will attend school in Berkeley or in another state. My sister is still learning to make imitation flowers, but she isn't very skillful yet, so when she is skillful. She promised to sent you some. She asked what is your favorite flowers?

At the present time I am working in the hospital as a maid I hope to get promoted later on.

Oh yes! thank you so much for sending me the book. I did read ~~them~~ ^{it}, but it is rather a little difficult for me to translate into Japanese, in order to make my folks understand.

The talk in this center is about I date to work in the sugar beets. Even my folks is rather interest to go. You know how it is, we got to have some money to buy us some smart stuff or some clothing. What do you advise Mrs. Wadell to remain here as usual or to work so we can be called patriotic and be trusted citizen here?

It awfully quiet tonight my folks attending ~~the~~ revival hour and my sister is playing with another girls. My brother has not been home lately. He is busy working in the hospital. There are quite a number of sick people especially the young ladies.

This is all I can think of to write please give my regard to all.

I am sending you a stamp and please write how much the tea cost.

With Best Wishes
Your sincerely,
Ruth Takagi
