EVACUEE INFORMATION RELEASE NO. 18

1. FAMILIES OF MIXED MARRIAGES

Those mixed marriage families who desire to apply for release governed by regulations approved by the Western Defense Command Area Office, must register at the Welfare Office as soon as possible.

- 1. The names of the mixed marriage families desiring release.
- 2. The contemplated residence upon release of said persons.
- 3. The contemplated plan of self-support.
- 4. What assistance, if any, the Western Defense Command Area Office will be expected to furnish in regard to transportation to the contemplated future residence.

Every case will be carefully studied, and release authorized only when the approved conditions have been met, and it is assured that the release will not in any way be detrimental to the safety or welfare of this nation.
